Satire:

- Sharp wit, irony or sarcasm used to highlight, expose or ridicule human, social or political weaknesses.

Satire is topical

Irony:

- Implies the opposite of what is said.

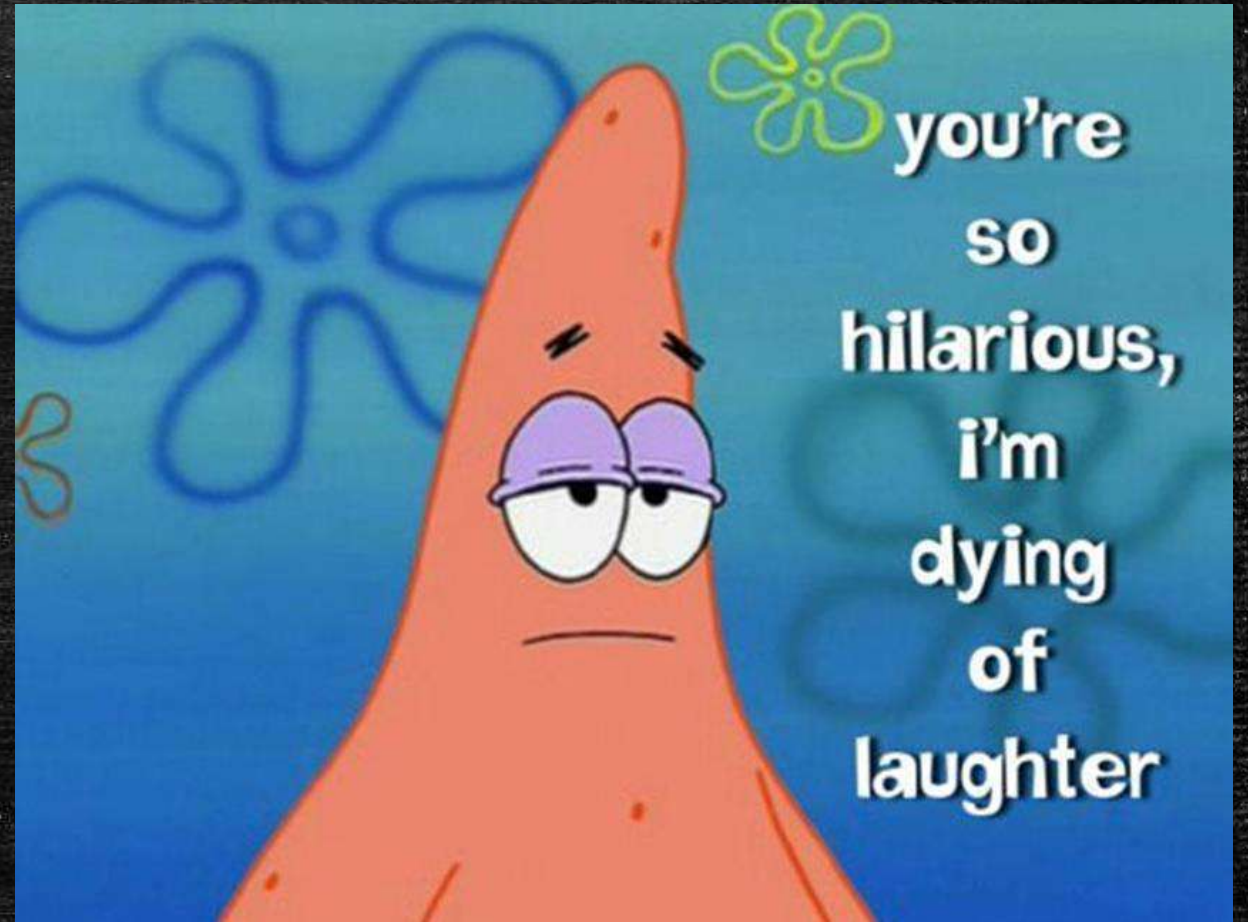

IRONIC

Just because it is, doesn't mean you have to point it out.

Sarcasm:

- Similar to irony, when one thing is said but another meaning is intended or interrupted.
- Sarcasm is always intentionally done.

Pun:

- A play on words. They sound the same but have a different meaning.

The past, the present,
and the future
walked into a bar.
It was tense.

PARODY

A parody is a work created to imitate, make fun of, or comment on an original work - its subject, author, style, or some other target - by means of satiric or ironic imitation.
